 - (i) render the Association unable to pay its liabilities as they become due in the ordinary course of business; or
 - (ii) cause the realizable value of the Association's assets to be less than its liabilities.

Redemption of shares on withdrawal of membership

- 32 Subject to the Act and these rules, when a member withdraws (including deemed withdrawal in the case of death, bankruptcy, liquidation, dissolution or moving away of a member, as specified in rules 13, 14 and 15), the Association must:

- (2) Subject to the Act and these rules, if the member gives written notice to the Association as specified in subrule (1), the Association must redeem the member's membership shares referred to in subrule (1) within 12 months after the member has given the Association the written notice required under subrule (1) and in accordance with the order of priority specified in rule 141.

- 39
- (1) The calling of a special general meeting by the directors, either on their own initiative or in response to a requisition by the members, must be in accordance with the Act.
 - (2) The requisitioning of a special general meeting by the members must be in accordance with the Act.

Provision for 2 or more general meetings for the same matters

- 41 (1) If it is not possible to hold one general meeting at a time when, or place where, a large portion of the membership is able to attend, the directors may choose to call 2 or more general meetings to be held at the times and the places in British Columbia that they specify in the notice of meetings.

- (2) If a notice of a general meeting contains a summary of the text of a special resolution as provided in subrule (1)(b), the notice must also state the place where the full text of that special resolution can be obtained.

Notice of adjourned meeting

- 46 If a general meeting is adjourned for fewer than 30 days, it is not necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting other than by announcement at the first meeting that is adjourned, but if a general meeting is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given in the same manner as for the original meeting.

Meeting valid despite failure to give notice

- 47 The accidental omission to give notice of any general meeting to, or the non-receipt of any notice by, a member or person entitled to receive notice does not invalidate any proceedings at that meeting.

Quorum

- 48 The quorum for the transaction of business at a general meeting is 10% of the total number of members entitled to vote at the meeting, or 15 members entitled to vote at the meeting, whichever is less.

Requirement of quorum

- 49 No business, other than the election of a chair under rule 51 and the adjournment of the meetings, may be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present at the commencement of the meeting and if, at any time during the meeting, a quorum ceases to be present, any business then in progress is suspended until a quorum is present or until the meeting is adjourned or terminated, as the case may be.

Lack of quorum

- 50 (1) If, within one hour after the time appointed for a general meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting,
- (a) if convened by requisition of members, must be dissolved, and
 - (b) in any other case, stands adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, unless the board changes the place of the meeting out of necessity.
- (2) If at the adjourned meeting referred to in subrule (1) a quorum is not present within ½ hour after the time appointed, the individuals present and entitled to vote are deemed to constitute a quorum.

Chair

- 51 The chair of a general meeting must be one of the president, the vice-president, or such other person appointed by the directors to chair the general meeting. If neither the president nor the vice-president nor such other person appointed by the directors is present or willing to serve, the members present at that general meeting may elect a chair for the meeting.

Adjournments by chair

- 52 The chair of a general meeting may, and, if so directed by the individuals present and entitled to vote, must, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business may be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

Minutes of meetings

- 53 The secretary must record the minutes of all resolutions and proceedings at a general meeting in books provided by the directors for that purpose.

Persons entitled to be present

- 54 The only individuals entitled to be present at a general meeting are those entitled to vote at that meeting, the auditor of the Association, if any, and others who are entitled or required under any provision of the Act or these rules to be present.

Other persons may be admitted

- 55 An individual who is not entitled to be present at a general meeting under rule 54 may be admitted to a meeting on the invitation of the chair or with the consent of the individuals at the meeting who are entitled to vote.

Voting in Person at Meeting or Other Form of Communication

Part 11 - Voting at General Meetings

Actions to be determined by ordinary resolution

- 57 At a general meeting, every motion must be determined by ordinary resolution unless the Act or these rules require a special resolution.

Chair not entitled to casting vote

- 58 In case of an equality of votes,
- (a) the chair of a general meeting is not entitled to a second or casting vote, and
 - (b) the motion is lost.

Decisions by show of hands or secret ballot

- 59 Every motion put to a vote at a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless:
- (a) the Association is required to conduct the vote by secret ballot because the Association is holding 2 or more general meetings as permitted in rule 41; or
 - (b) before or promptly on the declaration of the result of the vote by a show of hands, a secret ballot is directed by the chair, or a secret ballot is demanded by 21 of the individuals who are present and entitled to vote or 10 per cent (10%) of the individuals present and entitled to vote, whichever is less.

Secret ballots

- 60 (1) Subject to rule 62, a secret ballot must be taken in the manner and at the time, either at the general meeting or within 7 days after the date of the meeting, and at the place that the chair of the meeting directs.
- (2) The result of the secret ballot is deemed to be a resolution of the general meeting at which the secret ballot is demanded.
- (3) The individuals who demanded a secret ballot may withdraw the demand before the secret ballot is taken.

Chair must resolve dispute on a secret ballot

- 61 The chair must determine any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote given on a secret ballot, and the chair's determination, made in good faith, is final and conclusive.

Demand for a secret ballot on adjournment

- 62 A secret ballot demanded on a motion for adjournment must be taken immediately at the meeting.

Demand for a secret ballot not to prevent continuation of meeting

- 63 A demand for a secret ballot does not prevent the continuation of a general meeting for the transaction of any business other than the motion on which the secret ballot has been demanded unless the chair orders otherwise.

Declaration of result

- 64 (1) The chair must declare to the general meeting the decision on every motion in accordance with the result of the show of hands, and that decision must be entered in the minutes of the meeting.
- (2) Where a secret ballot has been demanded, the chair must declare to the general meeting the decision on the motion if the decision is available before adjournment and, if not, then the chair must ensure that it is entered in the minutes of the meeting.

Declaration is proof

- 65 Unless a secret ballot is required or demanded, a declaration by the chair that a motion has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the general meeting is proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that motion.

Retention of ballots and proxies

- (b) In case a part only of the then outstanding investment shares is at any time to be redeemed, the investment shares so to be redeemed shall be selected in such manner as the Directors in their absolute discretion shall decide, or if the Directors so determine, may be redeemed pro rata, disregarding fractions. Aggregate Redemption Amount

164 The aggregate Redemption Amount of each class of investment shares will be the amount by which:

- (a) the aggregate fair market value of all the property acquired by the Association in the transaction to which Section 85 applies and in respect of which such Investment shares were issued,

exceeds
- (b) the cost amount of the property transferred to the Association in the transaction to which Section 85 applies, as determined by the Directors of the Association at the time of the issuance of such Investment shares.

Redemption Amount per Investment Share

165 The Redemption Amount of each investment share issued will be determined by dividing the aggregate Redemption Amount for the class by the number of investment shares of the class issued in respect of such transaction.

Adjustment of Redemption Amount

166 If the Minister of National Revenue for Canada or any other taxing authority with jurisdiction (the "Assessing Authority") at any time proposes to issue or does issue an assessment that imposes or would impose any liability for tax of any nature or kind whatsoever on the Association, on the Transferor or on any other person on the basis that, in a transaction wherein investment shares have been issued, the fair market value of the acquired or exchanged property is greater or less than the aggregate Redemption Amount of the investment shares in question plus the fair market value of other consideration, the actual fair market value of the acquired or exchanged property as of the issue date of the investment shares ("Adjustment Amount") will be determined:

- (a) subject to Clause (b), by the Assessing Authority provided the Directors resolve that such determination is accurate; or
- (b) by the final determination of a competent tribunal after all appeals which the Association, the Assessing Authority or any other party with standing may pursue, provided the time within which any further appeal may be commenced has expired.

Redemption Amount Adjusted Down

167 If it is determined under rule 166 that the Adjustment Amount minus the fair market value or Other Consideration (such difference being herein the "Value") is less than the aggregate Redemption Amount for the Investment shares in question, the following adjustments will forthwith be made to account for that deficiency:

- (a) If, at the date of adjustment, any of those Investment shares remain issued, outstanding and held by the Transferor, the aggregate Redemption Amount for such Investment shares will be reduced by the amount of the deficiency provided the Redemption Amount will not be less than the par value of the Investment shares. The Redemption Amount so adjusted will be deemed retroactively to the issue date to have been the Redemption Amount for those investment shares;
- (b) If clause (a) does not apply or if the reduction made pursuant to clause (a) is less than the total deficiency, the Redemption Amount of other investment shares held by the Transferor at the date of adjustment will be reduced, in the aggregate, by an amount equal to the balance of the deficiency provided the Redemption Amount will not be less than the par value of the investment shares. The Redemption Amount of each share so adjusted will be deemed retroactively to have been its Redemption Amount when it was issued; and
- (c) If the aggregate reduction made pursuant to clauses (a) and (b) is less than the total deficiency, the transferor will make a contribution of capital to the Association equal to the balance of the deficiency.

Redemption Amount Adjusted Up

168 If it is determined under rule 166 that the Value is greater than the aggregate Redemption Amount for the investment shares in question, the following adjustments will forthwith be made to account for that excess:

- (a) If, at the date of adjustment, any of those investment shares remain issued, outstanding and held by the transferor, the aggregate Redemption Amount for such investment shares will be increased by the amount of the excess and the Redemption Amount so adjusted will be deemed retroactively to the issue date to have been the Redemption Amount for those investment shares;

- (b) If clause (a) does not apply, the Redemption Amount for all other investment shares held by the transferor at the date of adjustment will be increased, in the aggregate, by an amount equal to the excess. The Redemption Amount of each share so adjusted will be deemed retroactively to have been its Redemption Amount when it was issued; and
- (c) If no investment shares are held by the Transferor at the date of adjustment, the Association will allot and issue to him or her Investment shares having an aggregate Redemption Amount equal to the amount of the excess.

Retraction

169 The investment shares of the Association are retractable. A holder of investment shares may, at any time after the date of issue thereof, require that the Association to redeem the whole or any part of the investment shares held by him and he shall be entitled to payment by the Association of the Redemption Amount for such investment shares. The following provisions shall apply to such redemption:

- (a) The shareholder desiring to have the Association so redeem shall give to the Association notice in writing of his desire to exercise such right of redemption. Such notice shall specify the number of shares he desires to have the Association redeem;
- (b) Provided such redemption is not contrary to the Act, the Association shall, within 30 days of the receipt of such notice, either make available the Redemption Amount and shall notify the Shareholder in writing of the availability of such funds, or, alternatively, shall provide to the Shareholder a schedule of deferred payments for all or the unpaid portion of the Redemption Amount over a period not to exceed 3 years together with interest thereon at the prime rate of the Association's bank plus 2% per annum. The Association shall further provide to the Shareholder a promissory note in respect of any portion of the Redemption Amount so deferred;
- (c) Upon receipt of confirmation of availability of funds, or upon confirmation of the availability of the payment schedule and promissory note hereinabove referred to, the Shareholder shall surrender to the Association the share certificate or certificates respecting the shares to be redeemed and the Association shall thereupon pay to the Shareholder the Redemption Amount for each such share, or shall provide to the Shareholder the payment schedule and promissory note hereinabove referred to.
